

Chapter One:

Name: _____

"Connections with the Past"

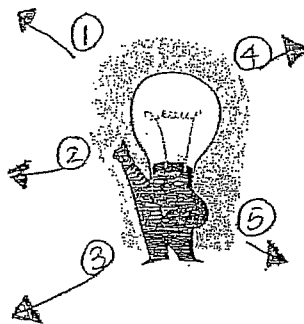

Block: _____ Date: _____

Questions:

1. Compare the following terms to show their definitions:

Individual Past	Vs.	Collective Past
Primary Sources	Vs.	Secondary Sources

2. Common Needs: fill in and explain the 5 things that all people need to survive, no matter where they live in the world.

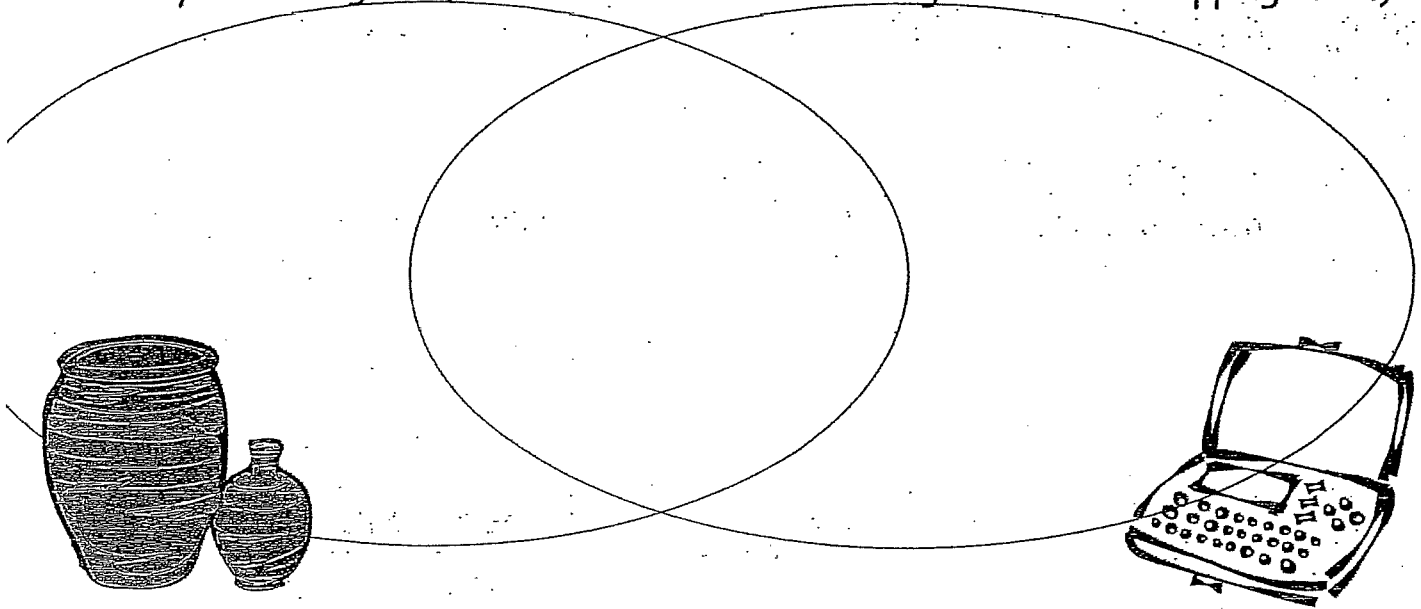

3. Look at the two pictures on page 11 of your text. What two methods of protection do these drawings show us?

1. _____

2. _____

4. How are an ancient clay pot and a computer the same? Use a Venn Diagram to record your thoughts. (Remember the similarities go in the overlapping area.)

5. Five very different examples of a "technology" are:

Laws and Government:

6. In most early societies, who was in charge of the people and made all the rules/laws?

7. In most modern societies, what is the system of government that allows the people to be involved in making governmental decisions?

Trade:

8. What were/are some benefits to trading with far-off communities?

Communications:

9. List as many methods of communication that you can think of that people in the "Early days" used:

10. What were some of the problems associated with these methods of communication? Explain:

11. Make a list of "Pro's" and "Cons", (positive aspects and negative aspects) of the Internet as a tool for communicating.

The Internet as a Communication Tool:

Pro's:

Con's

Language and Speech:

12. Our language involves gestures and body movements as well as verbal communication techniques. What do the following actions represent, (or mean) in our culture?

a) b) c)

1. artifacts _____

2. speculate _____

3. justify _____

4. natural processes _____

5. silt _____

6. habitations _____

7. hominids _____

8. anthropologist _____

9. casts _____

10. evolution _____

11. creatism _____
